CoNGO MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

An NGO with a consultative status (general, special, or roster) granted by the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) is eligible to become a CoNGO Full Member. An ECOSOC-accredited NGO with other accreditation(s) within the UN System will be classified under ECOSOC and hence, full membership. An NGO accredited or admitted by an entity within the UN System (aside from ECOSOC) and granted observer status is eligible to become CoNGO Associate Member. This includes accreditation by the Department of Global Communications (DGC) and other UN entities like the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC), World Health Organization (WHO), International Labour Organization (ILO), United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP), and the UN Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO).

Note: You are kindly requested to attach to this application documentation indicating your organization's status/affiliation with the United Nations. If you have not submitted these before, or if you are filling out this form to update, please send relevant documents about your accreditation at the UN.

Please check (by single clicking on the check box) below the membership category for which you are applying:
