9. At the closing session, the President delivered an acceptance speech. The Assembly was then declared closed with great appreciation from the President for the cooperative spirit and collective goodwill shown by fellow officers, assembly delegates, participants and guests, and with thanks to coopted staff and all those who had made the management and logistical arrangements possible and the assembly a success.¹⁰

⁹ The CoNGO President (Liberato Bautista) and the organizations that make up the membership of the CoNGO Board (2021-2025) were elected by the General Assembly. Other CoNGO Officers were elected at a meeting of the CoNGO Board convened on December 1, 2021 shortly after the adjournment of the General Assembly for the singular purpose of electing these other officers. These Officers who come from organizations elected to the CoNGO Board include the following: Cyril Ritchie (First Vice President, Union of International Associations), Martina Gredler (Second Vice President, Soroptimist International), Asociacion Latinoamericana para los Derechos Humanos and Pan Pacific South East Asia Women's Association as Vice Presidents-at-Large, Brazzaville Foundation as Treasurer, and CGFNS International as Secretary. The President, First Vice President and Second Vice President all serve in their personal capacities.

¹⁰ Special mention of thanks to OSMTH (Sovereign Military Order of the Temple of Jerusalem) who underwrote and arranged for an electronic voting system for use at the Assembly. The assembly elections eventually did not have need for the system.
